

Academic cooperation among Kyoto University,
Agropolis International and University of Göttingen

Workshop on Study of Family-run Farming: “Comparative Analysis on Agricultural Holdings/Family Farming”

Dates: March 15-16, 2017

Venue: Large Conference Room (C102),
Faculty of Agriculture Main Bldg.

DAY 1 (March 15)
13:00 – 18:00

3rd Future Leaders Global Workshop on Social Science of Agriculture, Food and Environment

Eight papers will be presented by
Graduate Students from Agropolis International (France), University of Göttingen (Germany) and Kyoto University (Japan).

Free admission. Advance registration not required.

Further information
including the detailed program:
[http://www.reseco.kais.kyoto-
u.ac.jp/en/news/20170303\_998/](http://www.reseco.kais.kyoto-u.ac.jp/en/news/20170303_998/)

Hosted by:
Division of Natural Resource Economics, GSA
Asian Platform for Global Sustainability &
Transcultural Studies (AGST)

DAY 2 (March 16)
13:00 – 17:00

Workshop on Study of Family-run Farming: “Comparative Analysis on Agricultural Holdings/Family Farming”

- Yoko Niiyama (Kyoto University) and Kae Sekine (Aichi Gakuin University)
- Pierre-Marie Bosc (CIRAD)
- Xiaohua Yu (University of Göttingen)
- Chieko Umetsu (Kyoto University)
- Jean-Michel Sourisseau (CIRAD)
- Pierre Gasselin (INRA)
- Ulf Römer (University of Göttingen)

Contact: Makoto Kuroda
Division of Natural Resource Economics (GSA).
email:kuroda.makoto.6a@kyoto-u.ac.jp

The Asian Platform for Global Sustainability &
Transcultural Studies

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY