You're in luck!

The Graduate School of Economics is now offering a six-hour workshop (over three sessions) to help you speak and listen in English with more confidence. The workshop will focus especially on boosting participants' English-language presentation skills.

This workshop will be led by Berlitz – a global language service company. Berlitz has operated in Japan since 1966 and operates in over 60 locations throughout Japan. Its teaching methods focus on speaking and listening, helping learners to not only speak but also to think in a new language.
