

International Graduate Student Workshop

Sunday March 7

Participating Universities

Chiang Mai University; Kasetsart University; Kyoto University (organizer); Thammasat University; Universitas Gadjah Mada

Japan Time	Thai/Indonesia Time	Room 1	Room2
10:15-10:30	08:15-08:30	Welcoming Remarks –Kyoto University (Room 1)
10:30-11:50	08:30-09:50	Issues in Politics and Economic Development I	Issues in Politics and Economic Development II
12:00-13:20	10:00-11:20	Environment	International Relations
Lunch (the rooms will be left open for informal interaction)
14:20-15:40	12:20-13:40	Uncertainty, Tax and Finance	Tourism and Hospitality
15:50-17:10	13:50-15:10	Issues in Politics and Economic Development III	Issues in Politics and Economic Development IV
		Closing Remarks (10-20 minutes, Partner Universities) (Room 1)

Notes on Format:

All sessions will take place on zoom using the links in the table above.

Sessions are made up of 2 parallel panels (each with 4 presentations) and are 80 minutes in length.

Individual presentations are scheduled for 15 minutes and will be conducted consecutively followed by 15-20 minutes of discussion.

We encourage the audience to use the chat function to post questions during the presentations in order to facilitate discussion.

First Sessions

Room 1 - Issues in Politics and Economic Development I

Home country nationals in local subsidiaries and their dual identity and bridging roll

Junsung (Felix) Won (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Enhancing ASEAN Economic Integration: Standard and Conformance

Naipaporn Thongsamrit (Thammasat University, Faculty of Political Science)

Better Late than Never: Study of MSE during Crisis 1997 in Indonesia

Wahyuningtyas Puspitasari (Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Gadjah Mada)

Thailand and Its Positioning in the 21st Century World Order: The Case of Hedging Strategy

Nutrada Siriakkalarp (Thammasat University, Faculty of Political Science)

Room 2 - Issues in Politics and Economic Development II

Is social capital associated with corporate innovation? Evidence from publicly listed firms in the U.S

Qiang Luer (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Adaptive Capacity of Coastal Community on Salinity Intrusion in The Mekong Delta, Vietnam

Trang Thi My Duyen (Kasetsart University, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics)

Understanding Celebrity Influence on Donors Participation and Campaign Performance in Social Crowdfunding: The Mediating Role of News Media Coverage and Online Social Networks

Agung Maulana (Thammasat University, Thammasat Institute of Area Studies, MAPS)

Labor Supply Intention of the Elderly in Thailand

Pacharaphon Arkornksakul (Kasetsart University, Faculty of Economics)

Second Sessions

Room 1 - Environment

Measurement of Conditional Dependence Structure Among Carbon, Fossil Energy, and Renewable Energy Prices: Vine Copula Based GJR GARCH Model

Yefan Zhou (Chiang Mai University, Faculty of Economics)

The impact of public procurement on environmental innovation--An analysis of European enterprises

Chunling Yu (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Sustainability marketing and pro-environmental behavior: Exploring the intersection between materialism and technology

Rokhima Rostiani (Department of Management, Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Gadjah Mada)

Gender sensitivity: gender mainstreaming and climate change policies in China

Ting Wang (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Room 2 - International Relations

The Role of Russia in the Asia-Pacific: ideational factors as influences on policy

Chitra Tkhompira (Thammasat University, Thammasat Institute of Area Studies, MAPS)

Impacts of Foreign Aid and Democracy on ASEAN Economic Growth

Sasiprapa Ponil (Chiang Mai University, Faculty of Economics)

Socioeconomic Perception of Domestic Stakeholders in the Capital of Vientiane: Laos on the Sino-Lao Railway Project of China's Belt and Road Initiative

Ssengsavanh Ssitaphone (Thammasat University, Faculty of Political Science)

Chinese Outward FDI to the Belt and Road Countries: Determinants and Implications to the Host

Xie Feng (Thammasat University, Faculty of Economics)

Third Sessions

Room 1 - Uncertainty, Tax and Finance

Assessing E-Filing Success: The Moderating Roles of Tax Complexity, Prior Experience, and Perceived Risk in Continuance Usage

Trisha Albay (Thammasat University, Thammasat Institute of Area Studies, MAPS)

Dependence of Financial Institutions in China: An Analysis Based on FDG Copula Model

Yangnan Cheng (Chiang Mai University, Faculty of Economics)

Innovation and economic policy uncertainty

Yixuan Liu (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Covid-19, Banks, and Policy: Empirical Evidence from Indonesia

Ahmad Maulin Naufa (Universitas Gadjah Mada, Faculty of Economics and Business)

Room 2 - Tourism and Hospitality

Analyzing the Influence of Transportation and Macroeconomic Determinants on Chinese Inbound Tourism: a Markov Switching Model Using Lasso Estimation

Xuefeng Zhang (Chiang Mai University, Faculty of Economics)

The Impact of COVID-19 on Muslim Students' Preferences for Educational Tourism

Aisyah Tri Astari (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

The Economic Value of Senior Tourism from the Cultural Tourism Routes Management in Ubon Ratchathani Province

Krittayaporn Tantiset (Kasetsart University, Faculty of Economics)

Airbnb careers. The role and identity of micro-entrepreneurship in the discourse of peer-to-peer hospitality field actors

Marc Chataigner (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

Fourth Sessions

Room 1 - Issues in Politics and Economic Development III

Farmers' Perception on Rice Contract Farming: Evidence from Vietnam

Tuyen Mai Chiem (Kasetsart University, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics)

Impact of Technology Advancements and Trade Liberalization on Productivity Evidence from Thai

Parinya Mingsakul (Thamamasat University, Faculty of Economics)

Environmental Efficiency of Rice Production and Farmers' Preferences of Sustainable Agricultural Practices in Myanmar

Myint Myat Moe (Kasetsart University, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics)

The Origins and Development of Thailand's Gastrodiplomacy

Nichaporn Rakasarat (Thammasat University, Faculty of Political Science)

Room 2 - Issues in Politics and Economic Development IV

Narcissism and Escalation of Commitment

Supeni Anggraeni Mapuasari (Department of Accounting, Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Gadjah Mada)

Digital Transformation of Informal Sectors: Cases of Technology-driven Startups in Indonesia

Eko Heru Prasetyo (Kyoto University, Graduate School of Economics)

The Stability of Money Demand Function in ASEAN+5 Countries

Anggraeni Tri Hapsari (Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Gadjah Mada)

Political Language: An Analysis of Mahathir Mohamad's Political Speeches on Muslim Identity

Lau Kai Xian (Thammasat University, Thammasat Institute of Area Studies, MAPS)